

Ryan Langlois

"A ferociously serious student of his craft ... his dedication is unwavering; whether for a small house concert or a large festival crowd, his commitment to and preparation of quality entertainment remains paramount"
Greg Shannon
Morning Radio Host, CFCW Edmonton

"The Barstool Balladeer" : A charming and mysterious legend recalling better days, better songs, in better bars. A figure cloaked in experience, masked in heartbreak and all-consuming empathy. This trope seeks hope and light over all else : In today's imitative mass Ryan Langlois' rock-ribbed growl and sometimes disarming honesty is an uncompromising breath of fresh air. This barstool balladeer continues to make his way, telling his story and singing his songs.

Highlights

- 9X Country Music Alberta nominee
- GRINDSTONE charted on Canadian country radio
- Performed at Big Valley Jamboree, Calgary Stampede, The King Eddy, Bo's Bar & Stage, Beaumont Blues & Roots Festival
- Original Story Open Mic host
- 2023 EP release, "Grindstone Project"
- Recipient of $75, 000 Project WILD Award

Live Performance

